

Cora says hello...

People We Love (a sampler)

Greek-Fest with Lynn!

Tim and his fire truck parts

Places We Went

In October, we flew to Chicago and drove to Dubuque to celebrate Julie's Mom's 80th birthday.

Colorado, September, awesome.

What is that nut saying now?

February and a family visit to Sanibel, FL, to see Mike's Aunt Elaine and cousins Kutzi and Jack, and (finally!) stay at the historic Walker Guest House. OMG what fun.

Bits 'n' Pieces

Mike's solo spring trip: Phoenix to Tucson to El Paso to San Antonio to Houston. Because he likes to drive.

One of our favorite fall events is the State Fair. This was the crowd on a Saturday night. Just a few people...

Mike feeling elfish in New York. Solo trip. Can't wait to take Mrs. Claus one day.

Stud

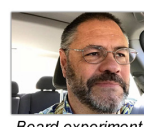

Special visitor for Julie on Valentine's Day.

Bought a drone in March! Still learning to fly.

Another year of chasing fire engines, including the city's largest blaze in 100 years. Or maybe more. Let's ask the historian. Wait, that's me!

Beard experiment

Gracie

(she chose this font)

