

Mike's dad is the last of the OG Legeros siblings. George, Elaine, and now Conn have passed.

In December '18, Mike & Julie went to Minneapolis to celebrate the life of and our love for Mike's Aunt Elaine Walker.

Hopkins Raspberry Festival Parade!

DC in July, to see Mike's Aunt Elizabeth.

Made you look!

Mike to MSP in June for Uncle Conn's memorial + connections with Krooks and Billmans (Mike's fam) and a couple of Gales (Julie's fam).

Mike lived in the Twin Cities until age 14.

Western NC in October

Nags Head in May.

And then a couple weeks later, fires hit Napa Valley.

Julie was raised in Merrill, IL. She's very normal.

This year's big trip in Sept? San Fran to Seattle, by way of wine country (to start).

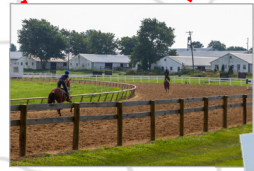

former Brothel!

Mike stayed in the "Asian Room."

AKA The loneliest Road in America

Snow at Donner Pass!

Big Drive in July, to pick up family belongings after Julie's parents moved this spring.

Mike to Morehead City in June, for 35-year high school reunion.

Snow at Donner Pass!

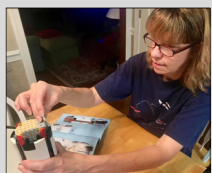

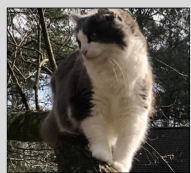

Both Mike and Julie's families have strong ties to sanibel.

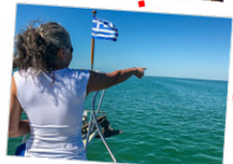

That's Nouli (left) and Kutzi, cousins of Mike and all three with the same birthday, June

We said our goodbyes to the beloved Walker Guest House.

Life in Raleigh? More of the same. Work. Play. Rest. Gracie D. Cat. Julie's puzzles. Plus Lego sets, which we're now building. And Mike's still chasing fire trucks and working on too many fire history projects.

Solo Mike in April - Racking up road miles in California, Nevada, and Utah... and seeing cousins!

Sanibel Island in February - Julie's favorite place in the world.
