an inspection by a physician appointed by the commissioners; and the magistrate of police shall possess the same powers in town that a justice of the peace does in the county.

VII. And be it further enacted, That every male person in the town between the ages of sixteen and forty five, shall be compelled to work on the streets whenever required to do it by the overseer; if any person refuse to work himself, or to send his servants, he shall be subject to pay a fine of fifty cents for each poll, to be recovered as before mentioned; and the commissioners may make any improvements in the town, not inconsistent with individual rights, which they may think expedient; and they may make proper allowances to the clerk and overseer of the streets for their services; and all forfeitures, fines and taxes shall be paid into the town Treasury for the benefit of the town.

VIII. And be it further enacted, that the magistrate of police and commissioners shall be sworn into office by any justice of the peace in the county; and they shall swear to perform the duties imposed by this act to the best of their skill and abilities. All persons, sixteen years old, who have been citizens of the town six months previous to the day of the election, shall be entitled to vote for the magistrate of police and commissioners: Provided nevertheless, that no person shall be eligible to office unless he is twenty one years old.

IX. And be it further enacted. That all other acts heretofore passed, regulating the town of Windsor, be, and the same are hereby repealed.

CHAPTER LIV.

An act supplementary to an act, passed in the year eighteen hundred and twenty-six, chapter one hundred and thirty-three, for the better regulation of the town of Greensboro', in Guilford county.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of North Carolina, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That the commissioners of the town of Greensboro', or a majority of them, be, and they are hereby authorised and required annually to lay and collect, or cause to be collected, by some person appointed by them for that purpose, a tax on all taxable property and polls within the limits of said town sufficient to pay patrolmen and other officers by them appointed; and to enable them to make preparation against fire, and for other purposes which may at any time by said commissioners be found necessary for the protection and better government of said town.

CHAPTER LV.

An act to explain and amend an act, passed A. D. 1784, for clearing out and opening the navigation of Trent River, in Jones county.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of North Carolina, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That the County Court of the county of Jones, a majority of the acting justices being present, are hereby authorised and empowered if they deem it necessary, to appoint three commissioners, whose duty it shall be to lay off Trent river, from the town of Trenton up to the mouth of Tuckehow creek into districts; and the said commissioners shall return their proceedings to the ensuing County Court; for which services said court shall in their discretion, allow them compensation out of the county funds.

II. Be it further enacted, That the Court of Pleas and Quarter Ses-
